The ASEAN Women Entrepreneurs’ Network (AWEN) welcomes business leaders from ASEAN and outside ASEAN to the Women CEOs Summit to address the major and pressing development problems of our times.

The Summit would provide a great opportunity for industry leaders and leading CEOs to share their views and thoughts as well as to interact with Summit participants in two focal areas:

- The challenges posed by Globalization 4.0 to government and business, including but not limited just to women entrepreneurs in ASEAN
- The needed changes and adaptations to be put in place by government and business to transform disruptive challenges into advantageous opportunities

ABOUT AWEN

AWEN is an inter-governmental entity established in 2012 by the ASEAN Committee on Women under the ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community.

Officially launched in April 2014, AWEN is a regional network of business women and their organisations as well as coalition of women’s organisations, representing women in all economic sectors in the ten ASEAN Member States.

Some 500 leading business women from ASEAN have received The AWEN Outstanding Women Entrepreneurs Award.
